

PERSON SPECIFICATION

Children's Pastor, All Saints Peckham

We are looking for God's person called to this post. Is that you? If so, what is essential is the following:

- i). You love Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour, and you love working with 0 – 11 year olds, with a passion that they discover Jesus as their own Lord and Saviour.
- ii). You have the indefinable but undeniable gift to inspire children to seek more of God in their lives.
- ii). You are a servant-hearted team-player, able and willing to work with all of us in our supportive staff team of 12.
- iv). You have the interpersonal skills needed to quickly gain the confidence and respect of those in our church and its surrounding community.
- vi). You have a genuine love and appreciation of different cultures, with a readiness to learn from others from a wide range of backgrounds.
- vii). You (and any family you may have) will love belonging to the worshipping community that is All Saints Peckham.
- viii). You will be aware of safeguarding good practice and the ability to ensure that everything done is in accord with our existing child protection and vulnerable person policy.
- ix). Even if organisational skills are not your top gift, you will definitely need to demonstrate that you have some.

What is desirable is the following:

- i). You will have experience in strategic thinking, able to contribute to meetings and conversations where future strategy is the subject.
- ii). You will have a training and qualification in teaching and/or church children's work.
- iii). You will have experience – or can very quickly learn – how to manage a budget.
- iv). You will have experience in working with children from both a church and also an unchurched background.
- v). You have experience in leading school assemblies and also all-age worship.

There is an Occupational Requirement for this post to be filled by a committed Christian.
